Information

Services

City Full-sized buses are operated by multiple private companies. These only use marked stops and will only pull over if hailed by someone waiting or if a passenger presses the red "stop" button. Passengers pay cash (no change) or by Octopus card as they enter and may sit or stand onboard. [nwfb.com.hk][kmb.com.hk]

Mini Green minibuses have marked stops, but they will generally pick up or drop off passengers at any location along their route if seats (usually 16) are available. Passengers pay in cash (no change) or by Octopus card as they enter and must remain seated.

Mini Red minibuses start and end at fixed locations, but the route they take may vary each time. Therefore, red minibuses have no labeled stops, but they will generally pick up passengers at any location along their route if seats (16) are available. The fare may vary as well. Passengers must pay in cash and remain seated.

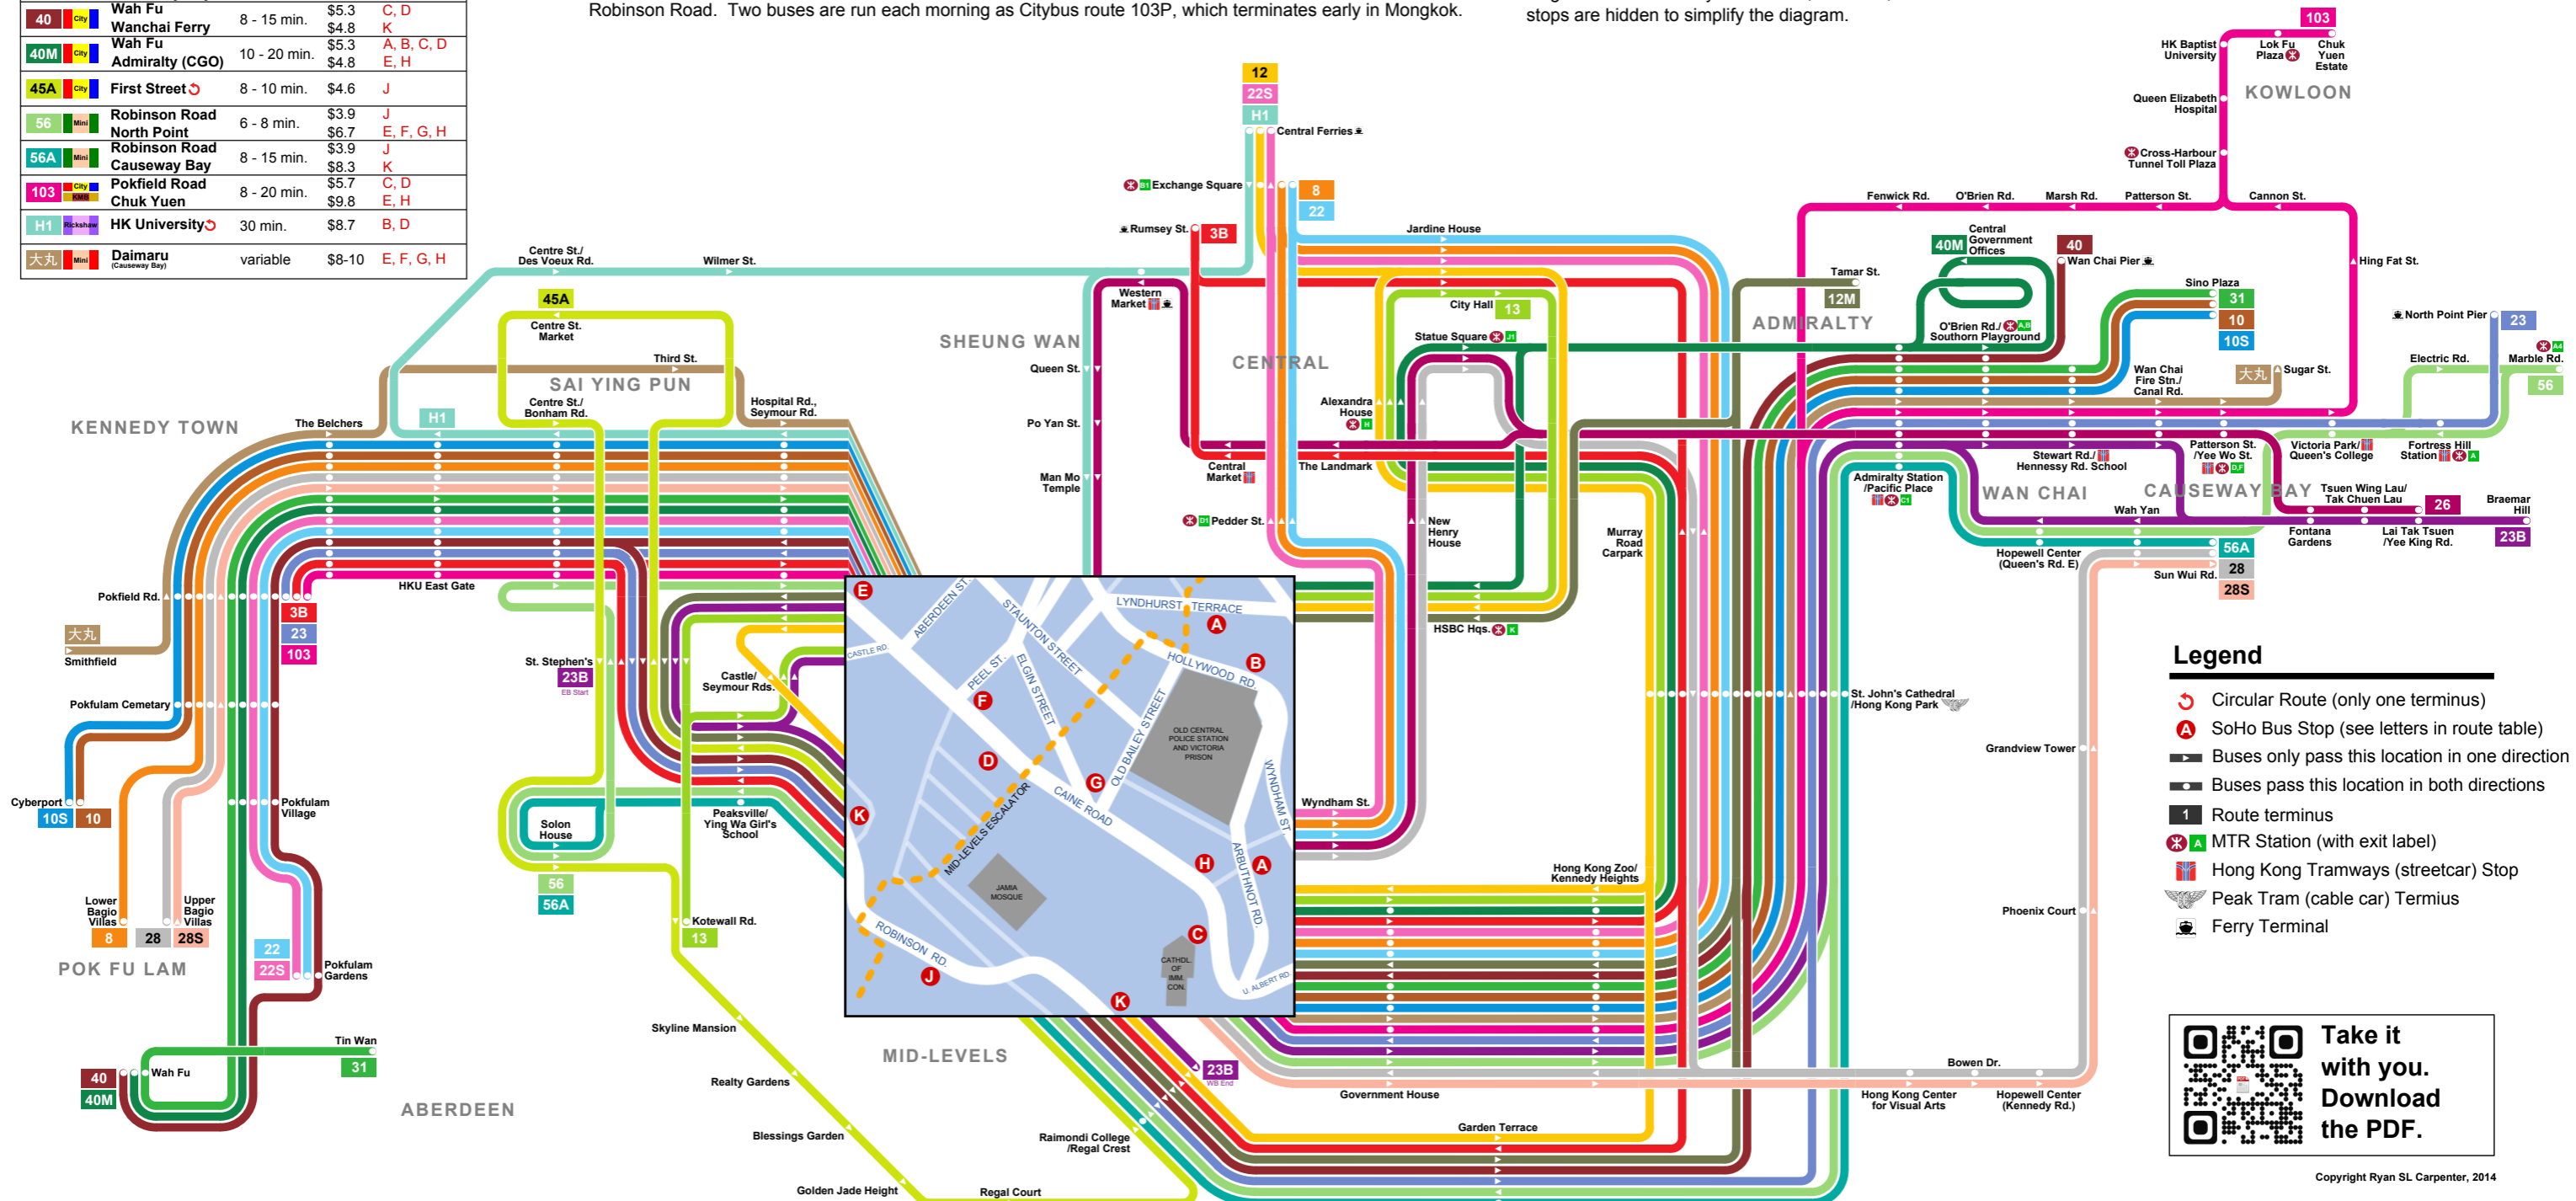

Others A few more routes pass through SoHo but are not shown due to limited service. The Big Bus Tour follows Caine Road, but does not stop nearby. Five buses are run each morning as Citybus 40P, from Aberdeen to Robinson Road. Two buses are run each morning as Citybus route 103P, which terminates early in Mongkok.

Fares

Adult fares for each route are listed in the table to the left. Child and Senior rates are generally set at one half of the adult price. On most routes, the price will decrease by steps as the bus nears its destination. On some minibus routes, a discount is also available if you let the driver know that you will be get off well before the terminus.

Map Accuracy

Not all stops are shown on this diagram. All bus stops in SoHo are shown in the center map and most nearby stops are included on the surrounding diagram. Further away from SoHo, however, some stops are hidden to simplify the diagram.
